Social Studies Grades 9-12

SITE-BASED PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Professional Development Program Overview 2004-2005

- The primary focus of the grade 9-12 Social Studies professional development program is the review and revision of the curriculum documents to align with the Massachusetts State Curriculum Frameworks and to prepare for curriculum review. Teachers who have not yet trained in Differentiated Instruction, John Collins Writing or Learning Styles may select one of these workshops for the morning professional development sessions. Teachers should consult with the department director before choosing from the available options.
